

Thanks to a special partnership with Fontenelle Forest and the generosity of the Friends of the Bennington Library, Bennington Public Library is pleased to offer free Fontenelle Forest admission to library members.

Fontenelle Forest Pass FAQs

How can I find out which day of the week is available for a visit to Fontenelle Forest?

Pass availability can be searched in Bennington Public Library's online catalog. Patrons should check the catalog or call the library (402-238-2201) to ensure there is a pass for the day they want to visit Fontenelle Forest. To search the catalog, go to BPL's website at Benningtonlibrary.org, click on the "Online Catalog" link at the top, and in the search field, type "Fontenelle Forest." You may not place holds or renew...

Why must one be 18 or older to check out a Fontenelle Forest membership pass?

Fontenelle Forest requires an adult be present with the use of the pass. No one under 18 is allowed to use the pass without an adult...

Why can I only check out one Fontenelle Forest pass at a time?

Bennington Public Library has a limited supply of membership passes and would like to share the Fontenelle Forest experience with as many library users as possible....

I don't have a Bennington Public Library card! Why can't I check out a Fontenelle Forest membership pass?

Due to a limited supply of passes, BPL must restrict eligibility. BPL's funding is derived from the City of Bennington and individuals who choose to pay for a Bennington Public Library card. Access is restricted to these individuals...

Do Fontenelle Forest membership passes need to be returned to the library?

Yes! The library has a membership pass for each day of the week. Passes need to be returned within seven days of check out to allow for others to check out a pass for the following week. There is an automatic $5.00 late charge if not returned within 7 days...
